

I am unable to trust myself with this.

I am unable to trust myself with myself.

STRONGER LEAP NEEDED

This pressure to construct collective violations through metaphor.

To participate in the new construction known as narrative repair.

WHEN YOU SAY CLOT, I CLOT.
WHEN YOU SAY FLOW, I FLOW.

WRITE
WHAT YOU KNOW.

I want to give you a piece of my mind
but I won't give it to you because it is the only part of me I have left.

Strange how critiques read like a list of demands, always claiming to have they think something we're missing.

WRITE
WHAT YOU KNOW,
OR ELSE
I WILL KILL THIS/
I WILL KILL YOU.
